Exciting last step on the long road to Cologne!

When the Machineseeker EHF Champions League 2024/25 season started last September, 16 teams embarked on the long road to Cologne. Now, approaching the final step towards the TruckScout24 EHF FINAL4 2025, eight teams are still hopeful to book their coveted spot for the highlight in European men's club handball at LANXESS arena on 14/15 June.

After the completion of the play-offs, which kept fans around the globe on the edge of their seat for four thrilling midweek evenings, we are down to the quarter-finals on 23/24 April and 30 April/1 May, with the four aggregate winners earning a trip to Cologne. And while the play-offs presented us with some surprises, the line-up for the quarter-finals promises just as much excitement and drama with eight strong contenders in the mix.

Having advanced to the quarter-finals directly after winning group B, record and defending champions Barça are next up against OTP Bank - PICK Szeged, who turned around a one-goal home defeat in the play-offs against Paris Saint-Germain with a jaw-dropping 10-goal victory in France the following week.

The 2023 champions, SC Magdeburg, defeated Dinamo Bucuresti in the play-offs and now aim for their third straight appearance in Cologne. However, they face opposition from One Veszprém HC, the team that collected the most points of all participants in the group phase as runaway winners of group A.

HBC Nantes, who made it all the way to the final seven years ago, eye a return to Cologne for the third time after a come-from-behind win over Orlen Wisla Plock in the play-offs. They meet one of the revelations of the season in Sporting CP, who impressed with their runners-up finish in group A.

The finalists from 2021 and 2024, Aalborg Håndbold, finished second in group B and hope for another chance to play for the title this season. But they first will have to come through their quarter-final against Füchse Berlin, who navigated their way past 2016 titleholders Industria Kielce in the play-offs.

With four high-octane pairings, the Machineseeker EHF Champions League quarter-finals promise four more tantalising nights of top-level handball, as all remaining teams are eager to take that last step on their road to Cologne. Enjoy the quarter-finals!

Et stort bjerg skal bestiges

Onsdag aften gælder det sæsonens foreløbigt vigtigste kamp, når vi tager imod Fühse Berlin til returkampen i kvartfinalerne i Machineseeker EHF Champions League.

Det skal ikke være nogen hemmelighed, at første opgør i Tyskland i torsdags blev en stor skuffelse for os.

Efter en særdeles fornuftig start på kampen fik tyskerne tilkæmpet sig overtaget, mens vi ikke fik lavet de rette taktiske modtræk, så vi til sidst måtte se os slået med otte mål.

Den slags er ikke hverdagskost, men der skal ikke herske nogen tvivl om, at oplevelsen bruges som benzin på vores bål og at vi i den grad har tænkt os at rejse os ved det træ hvor vi faldt.

I Sparekassen Danmark Arena har vi en unik hjemmebane, hvor vi i mere end 500 dage er ubesejret.

Den stime skal fortsættes onsdag aften, men skal vi nå det forjættede land til Final4 i Köln, så kræver det noget helt ekseptionelt af os.

Jeg tror fuldt ud på, at vi med den nuværende spillertrup har det i os, men vi ved også, at tyskerne vil gøre alt for at nå deres første Final4.

Mathias Gidsel viste torsdag aften igen hvorfor han i øjeblikket er verdens klart bedste spiller, da han gik forrest og i anden halvleg løftede sig selv og holdkammeraterne til sejr.

Ligeledes viste flere andre profiler sig godt frem for Fühse Berlin, blandt andet Tim Freihöfer og målmand Dejan Milosavljev.

Der er derfor ingen tvivl om, at vi skal have lagt en ny, god gameplan for kampen, hvor målet er, at kunne vende tingene på hovedet og denne gang give Berlin-mandskabet noget at tænke over.

Samtidig håber vi, at en stopfyldt Sparekassen Danmark Arena igen vil være bag os fra første fløjt og være med til at give holdet vingerne til at komme flyvende fra start og indhente det tabte terræn.

Vi ser derfor meget frem til for sidste gang i denne sæson, at slå dørene op til til verdensklassehåndbold i Sparekassen Danmark Arena.

Vi ses i rødt og hvidt på tribunerne!

Med venlig Hilsen
