Road to Cologne to bring new challenges for 16 clubs

16 elite teams embark on a thrilling journey to Cologne as the Machineseeker EHF Champions League 2025/26 group phase throws off on 10/11 September. The clubs will have to go through multiple challenges over 14 high-octane rounds, with the final group standings being confirmed on 11/12 March 2026.

Play-offs and quarter-finals will heat up European handball in the spring, but only four teams will reach the TruckScout24 EHF FINAL4 2026 on 13/14 June 2026. Last season has shown us that anything is possible — are you ready for more?

Defending champions SC Magdeburg celebrated their third title back in June, but this season is guaranteed to bring new challenges to all participants. Record-winners Barça share group B with the current titleholders, marking their first meeting after the dramatic 2025 semi-final, which the Spanish side lost by one goal.

Excitement is set to reach new heights as experienced clubs Paris-Saint Germain, OTP Bank – PICK Szeged, Orlen Wisla Plock, HC Zagreb, HC Eurofarm Pelister and GOG also join the race for the play-off and quarter-final spots in group B.

An interesting mix of handball stars and historic clubs makes up group A at the start of the competition, with the previous silver and bronze medalists — Füchse Berlin and HBC Nantes — as headliners. The German powerhouse is set to face familiar foes, after One Veszprém HC, Sporting Clube de Portugal and Dinamo Bucuresti were drawn to the same group, the same as last year. The Portuguese side had an impressive run in 2024/25, finishing second in their respective group and making it all the way to the quarter-finals, but losing against HBC Nantes.

Aalborg Håndbold, Industria Kielce and Kolstad Håndball also clashed in the group phase last season, and they all count on their star-studded line-ups to take one step further on the Road to Cologne. In 2024/25, the Danish side failed to reach the final weekend, while Kielce stopped in the play-offs and Kolstad settled for a disappointing seventh place in the group phase.

Another thrilling season awaits to leave its mark in the history books. Enjoy the group phase of the Machineseeker EHF Champions League 2025/26!
