The last obstacle on the Road to Cologne!

Dear handball fans,

It is time to decide the Machineseeker EHF Champions League 2025/26 semi-finalists! An exciting season has flown by, and we find ourselves at the business end of the EHF's pinnacle club competitions. Only one obstacle blocks the Roads to Cologne, where the 2025/26 calendar will culminate.

The TruckScout24 EHF FINAL4 2026 will take place on 13 and 14 June in the iconic LANXESS arena, and the upcoming quarter-finals will determine the four participants.

The latest competition stage saw four thrilling two-leg play-offs, with One Veszprém HC, Sporting Clube de Portugal, OTP Bank - PICK Szeged and HBC Nantes the aggregate winners. The four are set to take on the top-ranked teams from the group phase in the quarter-finals: Defending title holders SC Magdeburg, 2024/25 finalists Füchse Berlin, 2023/24 finalists Aalborg Håndbold and 2024 trophy winners Barça.

Veszprém continue their quest for a first EHF Champions League title, having enjoyed a clear aggregate win over Paris Saint-Germain in the play-offs. The Hungarian powerhouse will take on Füchse Berlin in the quarter-finals, after being knocked out by another German side, Magdeburg, in this stage last season.

Sporting aim to progress from the EHF Champions League quarter-finals for the first time ever when they meet Aalborg. It is only Sporting's second time in the quarter-finals of the top-flight competition, while Aalborg made it to this stage in four of the previous five seasons. Sporting were the only quarter-finalists to lose one of their play-off games, but still knocked out an in-form Orlen Wisła Płock with a three-goal win on aggregate.

Szeged also eliminated a Polish team with a three-goal aggregate victory, beating Industria Kielce in the first leg then drawing in the second. Now Szeged, hoping to pass the quarter-finals for the first time, face the mighty title holders Magdeburg, who target their fourth straight EHF FINAL4 appearance.

Nantes are to play Barça in a rematch of last season's 3/4 placement match, when the French side pulled off a stunning match in Cologne to clinch third — their second-best ranking ever. HBC beat GOG clearly on aggregate, but by just one goal in the first leg before a commanding victory at home clinched their quarter-final berth.

The stage is certainly set for four thrilling quarter-final ties, and eight exciting matches, as the Road to Cologne continues! Best of luck to all participating teams.

Yours in sport,

Michael Wiederer
